White Chicken Chili

Soups | Instant Pot

Before you start

Use a 6-quart or larger Instant Pot and 1 3/4 lb raw, thawed boneless, skinless chicken breasts. Cook at High Pressure for 10 minutes, then naturally release for 10 minutes. Allow about 45-55 minutes total, including coming to pressure. Add beans and corn after pressure cooking; add dairy off the heat.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Onion and jalapeno

Bowl B - Garlic, oregano, and cumin

Bowl C - Broth and green chiles

Bowl D - White beans and corn; add after pressure cooking

- [ ] 1 tbsp neutral oil
- [ ] 1 medium yellow onion, chopped [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 jalapeno, seeded and finely chopped [Bowl A]
- [ ] 2 cloves garlic, finely chopped [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 tsp dried oregano [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 tsp ground cumin [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 3/4 lb raw boneless, skinless chicken breasts, thawed; cut very large breasts in half crosswise
- [ ] 5 cups low-sodium chicken broth [Bowl C]
- [ ] 2 (4.5-oz) cans green chiles [Bowl C]

- [ ] Kosher salt, to taste
- [ ] Freshly ground black pepper, to taste
- [ ] 2 (15-oz) cans white beans, drained and rinsed [Bowl D]
- [ ] 1 1/2 cups frozen corn [Bowl D]
- [ ] 8 oz cream cheese, softened and cut into small cubes
- [ ] 1/2 cup sour cream
- [ ] 8 oz shredded Monterey Jack, for serving
- [ ] 1 avocado, thinly sliced, for serving
- [ ] 1/4 cup chopped fresh cilantro, for serving
- [ ] 1/4 cup crushed tortilla chips, for serving

1. Saute the aromatics

1. Select Saute and heat the oil. Add the onion and jalapeno; cook 5-7 minutes, stirring, until softened.

2. Add the garlic, oregano, and cumin. Cook 30-60 seconds, stirring, until fragrant.

2. Pressure-cook the chicken

1. Pour in the broth and green chiles. Scrape the bottom thoroughly until no browned bits remain, then press Cancel.

2. Nestle the chicken into the broth. Season with salt and black pepper. Leave the beans, corn, cream cheese, sour cream, and Monterey Jack out for now.

3. Seal the lid and set High Pressure for 10 minutes. When cooking ends, naturally release for 10 minutes, then carefully release the remaining pressure.

4. Check that the thickest part of the chicken reaches 165F. If needed, use Saute to simmer it in the broth until it does. Transfer the chicken to a bowl and shred with two forks.

3. Add the beans and finish

1. Select Saute on Low. Stir in the beans and corn. Simmer gently about 5 minutes, until hot. Mash roughly one-quarter of the beans against the side of the pot to thicken the broth. For a thicker chili, simmer uncovered a few more minutes before adding dairy.

2. Press Cancel. Put the softened cream cheese in a bowl. Gradually whisk in about 1 cup hot broth ladled from the pot until smooth, then stir the mixture back into the chili.

3. Return the shredded chicken to the pot and stir in the sour cream. Warm gently if necessary without boiling. Taste and adjust salt and black pepper.

4. Ladle into bowls. Divide the Monterey Jack, avocado, cilantro, and tortilla chips among the servings as desired.
