15-Minute Creamy Tomato Soup

Soups | Stovetop & prep

Before you start

Equipment: saucepan and blender. Cook onion: about 4 minutes; simmer soup: about 5 minutes. Olive oil is divided: 2 Tbsp for cooking, then 3 Tbsp in each of two blender batches.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Aromatics and seasonings

- [ ] 1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil, divided: 2 Tbsp for cooking; 3 Tbsp for each of two blender batches
- [ ] 2 cloves garlic, finely grated [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 small onion, finely sliced (about 1 cup) [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 tsp dried oregano [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/2 tsp red pepper flakes [Bowl A]
- [ ] 2 slices white bread, crusts removed and torn into pieces
- [ ] 2 (28-oz) cans whole peeled tomatoes in juice
- [ ] Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste
- [ ] Minced chives, basil, or parsley, for garnish
- [ ] Toast or grilled cheese, for serving
- [ ] 2 cups water
- [ ] Additional olive oil for serving, optional

1. Cook aromatics

1. Heat 2 Tbsp extra-virgin olive oil in a saucepan over medium-high heat.

2. Add 2 finely grated garlic cloves, 1 finely sliced small onion (about 1 cup), 1 tsp dried oregano, and 1/2 tsp red pepper flakes. Cook about 4 minutes, until onion softens without browning.

2. Simmer

1. Add 2 slices white bread, crusts removed and torn into pieces, and two 28 oz cans whole peeled tomatoes with their juice. Roughly crush the tomatoes.

2. Add 2 cups water. Bring to a boil, then simmer about 5 minutes.

3. Blend and finish

1. Blend the soup in two batches. Vent the blender lid and cover with a kitchen towel, as noted in the saved recipe.

2. While blending each batch on high, slowly drizzle in 3 Tbsp olive oil. This uses the remaining 6 Tbsp from the original 1/2 cup total and makes the soup creamy.

3. Season with kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste.

4. Serve with minced chives, basil, or parsley, an optional extra drizzle of olive oil, and toast or grilled cheese.

Notes

Use care when blending hot soup; vent the blender lid and cover with a kitchen towel.

Acai Bowl

Breakfast | Stovetop & prep

Before you start

Alice Springs Chicken

Main dishes | Oven

Before you start

Marinate refrigerated about 2 hours. Use an ovenproof frying pan; bake at 375°F for 7-10 minutes after searing.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Honey mustard marinade

Bowl B - Monterey Jack and cheddar

- [ ] 1/2 cup Dijon mustard [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/2 cup honey [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 1/2 tsp vegetable oil, for marinade [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/2 tsp lemon juice [Bowl A]
- [ ] 4 boneless, skinless chicken breasts
- [ ] 1 tbsp vegetable oil, for pan
- [ ] 2 cups mushrooms, sliced
- [ ] 2 tbsp butter
- [ ] Salt
- [ ] Pepper
- [ ] Paprika
- [ ] 8 slices bacon, cooked
- [ ] 1 cup Monterey Jack, shredded [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 cup cheddar, shredded [Bowl B]
- [ ] 2 tsp fresh parsley, finely chopped

1. Prepare and cook

1. Use an electric mixer to combine the mustard, honey, 1 1/2 teaspoons oil and lemon juice in a small bowl. Whip the mixture for about 30 seconds. Pour about 2/3 of the marinade over the chicken breasts and marinate them, covered, in the refrigerator for about 2 hours. Chill the remaining marinade until later. After the chicken has marinated, preheat the oven to 375F and heat an ovenproof frying pan large enough to hold all four breasts and 1 tablespoon oil over medium heat. (If you dont have an ovenproof frying pan, transfer the chicken to a baking dish)

2. Sear the chicken in the pan for 3-4 minutes per side or until golden brown. Remove pan from heat but keep chicken in the pan.

3. As the chicken is cooking, in a small frying pan saute the mushrooms in the butter. Brush each seared chicken breast with a little of the reserved honey mustard marinade (not the portion that the chicken soaked in) being sure to save a little extra that you can serve on the side later with the dish.

4. Season the chicken with salt, pepper and paprika. Stack two pieces of cooked bacon, crosswise on each chicken breast. Spoon the sauteed mushrooms onto the bacon, being sure to coat each breast evenly. Sprinkle 1/4 cup Monterey Jack cheese evenly onto each breast followed by 1/4 cup of Cheddar. Bake the pan of prepared chicken breasts for 7-10 minutes or until cheese is thoroughly melted and starting to bubble. Sprinkle each breast with 1/2 teaspoon parsley before serving. Put extra honey mustard marinade into a small bowl to serve on the side.

2. Bake and serve

1. Transfer the mixture to a baking dish. Bake at 350°F for about 20 minutes, or until the top is browned and bubbly.

2. Serve with crackers.

Notes

From T. Bone's handwritten recipe card for Jill & Geoff.

Make-ahead: The card says this can be made ahead; it does not give a storage duration or reheating instructions.

Prep clarification: The card does not specify the garlic's form, the Parmesan's form, or whether the dill weed is fresh or dried. No form has been assumed.

Baked Mac and Cheese (CUT Steakhouse)

Main dishes | Oven

Before you start

Serves 8-10. Prep about 20 minutes; total about 1 hour 10 minutes. Use a buttered 3-4-quart baking dish; bake at 375°F about 30 minutes and rest 10 minutes.

Ingredients

Keep these ingredients separate; follow the order in the directions.

- [ ] 1 pound dried cavatappi pasta, or other bite-sized pasta tubes
- [ ] 6 tablespoons (3/4 stick) unsalted butter, plus extra for greasing
- [ ] 6 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- [ ] 1 bay leaf
- [ ] 4 cups milk
- [ ] 1 1/2 cups crème fraîche
- [ ] 1 1/2 teaspoons sea salt, plus extra as needed
- [ ] 3 3/4 cups freshly shredded mozzarella cheese
- [ ] 1 3/4 cups freshly shredded aged cheddar cheese
- [ ] Freshly ground white pepper
- [ ] 3/4 cup fresh brioche bread crumbs

1. Prepare and cook

1. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Meanwhile, fill a large bowl with ice cubes and water and place it near the sink. Add the pasta to the boiling water and cook until al dente (tender but still chewy), according to package instructions. Drain the pasta and immediately add it to the ice water, stirring until cooled, 1 to 2 minutes. Drain well and set aside.

2. Preheat an oven to 375 degrees. Butter a 3- to 4-quart square baking dish. Set aside.

3. Meanwhile, in a large saucepan, melt the butter over medium heat. Stirring continuously with a wire whisk, sprinkle in the flour and cook, stirring, for 1 minute. Add the bay leaf and, whisking continuously, slowly pour in the milk until smooth. Simmer, whisking occasionally, until the mixture has thickened, about 14 to 16 minutes. Remove and discard the bay leaf. Whisk in the crème fraîche and the salt; bring the mixture to a simmer.

4. Remove the pan from the heat and stir in 11/4 cups each of the mozzarella and cheddar until melted. Season to taste with some salt and white pepper.

5. In a large mixing bowl, combine the pasta and cheese sauce. Stir in 2 cups more of the mozzarella. Transfer the mixture to the prepared baking dish, spreading it evenly. Evenly sprinkle the remaining mozzarella and cheddar over the top, and then sprinkle with the bread crumbs.

6. Bake in the preheated oven until the mixture is bubbly and the bread crumbs are golden brown (about 30 minutes). Remove from the oven and leave to settle at room temperature for 10 minutes before scooping and serving.

Notes

From and tested by Wolfgang Puck, as credited in the saved file. Keep cheese portions separate: 1 1/4 cups each mozzarella and cheddar for sauce; 2 cups mozzarella mixed with pasta; remaining 1/2 cup each cheese for topping.

Chicken and Broccoli Penne

Main dishes | Stovetop & prep

Before you start

Cut chicken into 3/4-inch pieces, prepare broccoli florets, and freshly grate cheeses. Combine the dry seasonings before cooking. Cook pasta and broccoli together while sauce simmers.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Italian seasoning, mustard powder, and optional pepper flakes

Bowl B - Parmesan and Asiago, freshly grated

- [ ] 2 large boneless, skinless chicken breasts, cut into 3/4-inch pieces
- [ ] Lemon pepper seasoning
- [ ] 4 tablespoons olive oil
- [ ] 1 cup dry white wine see notes
- [ ] 6 tablespoons butter
- [ ] 6 cloves garlic
- [ ] 4 tablespoons flour
- [ ] 1.5 cup chicken broth
- [ ] 2.5 cups half and half
- [ ] 2 teaspoon hot sauce
- [ ] 8 cups broccoli florets
- [ ] 1.5 cup Parmesan, freshly grated [Bowl B]
- [ ] 0.5 cup Asiago can also use all parmesan., freshly grated [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 lb. Penne
- [ ] 4 teaspoons freshly squeezed lemon juice

Seasonings:

- [ ] 2 teaspoon Italian seasonings [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 teaspoon mustard powder [Bowl A]
- [ ] 2 pinch red pepper flakes optional [Bowl A]

1. Prepare and cook

1. Prep Work: Combine the seasoning ingredients and set aside. I recommend that you measure out the remaining ingredients as well, the recipe will be a breeze from there!

2. Cut the chicken into 3/4-inch pieces and season it in Lemon Pepper Seasoning. Heat olive oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add the chicken and cook on each side for 2-3 minutes, until a brown crust has developed. Remove and set aside.

3. Bring a large pot of salted pasta water to a boil while you begin to prepare the sauce as outlined below.

4. Add the white wine to the same pot that you used to cook the chicken and set the heat to medium. Use a silicone spatula to “clean” the bottom of the pot. Let it reduce by half, about 4 minutes.

5. Add the butter and garlic and cook for 1 minute. Stir in the flour and cook for 1-2 minutes, stirring continuously.

6. Add chicken broth in small splashes, stirring continuously. Add the half and half in the same manner, then add the hot sauce and seasonings. Bring to a boil, reduce to a simmer and cover it partially.

7. Boil the pasta to al dente according to package instructions. Add the broccoli to the boiling pasta water during the last 4 minutes, then drain.

8. Reduce heat of sauce to low and slowly stir in the grated cheese.

9. Remove from heat and stir in the lemon juice. Add the pasta, broccoli, and the chicken and stir to combine. Taste and season with salt if desired. Serve!

Notes

Grate the cheese from a wedge and avoid using packaged grated cheese. It will melt and taste much better. I use Belgioioso Parmesan and Asiago cheese.

Make sure the base of the sauce isn't too hot when the cheese is added, or the dairy can separate and result in a grainy consistency.

White Wine: Dry white wine like Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, or Pinot Grigio are best in this recipe and pair well with lemon. Chicken Broth may be used if you don't cook with wine.

The hot sauce is a subtle flavor enhancer and doesn't make this spicy. I use Frank's Hot Sauce. The mustard powder is also a flavor enhancer that can't be tasted outright.

Frozen broccoli may be used instead of fresh, it's already blanched so you may want to give it 3 minutes of cooking time instead of 4.

The ingredient list appears scaled up while the saved nutrition/servings text still says four servings; no yield or nutrition has been assumed.

Garlic prep is not specified in the saved recipe.

9. Pour remaining mole sauce over the top. Bake for 20-25 minutes or until hot and bubbly.

10. Remove from oven and top a drizzle of sour cream, a sprinkle of cotija cheese, cilantro and chopped avocado.

Notes

The document combines a pressure-cooker mole filling with baked corn-tortilla enchiladas. It lists flour tortillas for the pressure-cooker serving option, then uses corn tortillas in the baking instructions.

Amounts for added tomatoes, enchilada cheese, sour cream, cotija, and avocado are unspecified. Added peanut butter (1 tbsp) and hot chocolate powder (1 tbsp) have no specified timing.

A separate stovetop mole-sauce variant remains in the original file.

Detroit-Style Pizza

Main dishes | Oven

Before you start

Makes three 10x14-inch pizzas. Give the dough 1-2 days to cold-ferment in the pans, then finish each pizza with a five-minute par-bake and a short final bake.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Flour and salt

Bowl B - Warm water and yeast

Bowl C - Kenji's sauce ingredients

Dough

- [ ] 1050 g bread flour [Bowl A]
- [ ] 30 g kosher salt [Bowl A]
- [ ] 765 g water, warmed to 85-95F [Bowl B]
- [ ] 10.5 g instant dried yeast [Bowl B]

For the pans and topping

- [ ] Butter or shortening, to grease three 10x14-inch pans
- [ ] 48 oz cheese total (16 oz per pizza): brick cheese preferred; white cheddar, Jack, or Havarti also work; mozzarella optional
- [ ] Fresh basil, chopped
- [ ] Pepperoni or other toppings (optional)

Kenji's sauce

- [ ] 2 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil [Bowl C]
- [ ] 3 medium garlic cloves, minced [Bowl C]
- [ ] 2 tsp dried oregano [Bowl C]
- [ ] Dash red pepper flakes [Bowl C]
- [ ] 1 28-oz can high-quality crushed tomatoes [Bowl C]
- [ ] 1 tsp granulated garlic powder [Bowl C]
- [ ] 1 tsp granulated onion powder [Bowl C]
- [ ] 1 tbsp sugar [Bowl C]
- [ ] Kosher salt, to taste [Bowl C]

1. Mix and start the dough

1. Combine the flour and salt in the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with a dough hook.

2. Stir the yeast into the warm water and let it sit 5 minutes. Slowly add the water mixture while mixing on low, about 10 minutes, until the dough is smooth, very wet, and sticky. Scrape the bowl as needed.

3. With wet hands, fold the dough into a ball. Cover and leave at room temperature 1-2 hours to begin fermentation; it should rise somewhat but does not need to double.

2. Pan and cold-ferment

1. Divide the rested dough into 3 equal balls. Grease three 10x14-inch Detroit-style pans with butter or shortening.

2. Place one dough ball in each pan. With wet hands, flatten and stretch it as close to the edges as possible. Cover the pans and refrigerate 1-2 days.

3. Prepare for baking

1. Bring the pans to room temperature for 3 hours. Preheat a home oven to 550F. For an outdoor pizza oven, preheat to 700-800F for about 20 minutes.

2. Let each dough rest in its pan 30 minutes, then stretch again so it reaches every edge. Par-bake each pizza on the bottom of a home oven for 5 minutes.

4. Make Kenji's sauce

1. Warm the olive oil in a saucepan. Add the garlic, oregano, and red pepper flakes; cook just until fragrant.

2. Stir in the tomatoes, garlic powder, onion powder, sugar, and salt. Simmer until slightly thickened, then cool enough to spoon over the pizzas. The sauce can be made ahead and refrigerated.

5. Top, bake, and serve

1. Carefully remove a hot pan. Add mozzarella first if using, then scatter cubed or shredded brick cheese all the way to the edges. Spoon sauce in wide stripes and add pepperoni or other toppings.

2. For a home oven, return the pizza to the bottom rack for about 7 minutes. Broil for the last 1-2 minutes only if the cheese or pepperoni needs more browning. For an outdoor pizza oven, bake 5-6 minutes, rotate halfway through, and cover with foil if it browns too quickly.

3. Run a thin metal spatula around the edges, slide the pizza onto a wire rack, rest 3 minutes, finish with basil, and slice.

Notes

This preserves the saved personal pan-first workflow: divide into three dough balls and spread into pans before the 1-2 day cold ferment.

The original Pala Pizza method uses the same dough formula for one 10x14-inch pizza; the saved document scales it to three pans. The par-bake-and-freeze question in the source document remains an experiment, not an adopted step.

Bowl A - Sauce seasonings

- [ ] 1 lb fettuccine
- [ ] 6 Tbsp butter
- [ ] 1 garlic clove, minced
- [ ] 1 1/2 cups heavy cream

Foolproof Pan Pizza

Main dishes | Oven

Before you start

Makes two 10-inch pies, serving 4-6. Rest dough 8-24 hours, then 2 hours in oiled pans. Bake at 550°F for 12-15 minutes.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Dough flour, salt, yeast, water, and oil

- [ ] 400 grams (14 ounces, about 2 1/2 cups) bread flour [Bowl A]
- [ ] 10 grams (.35 ounces, about 2 teaspoons) kosher salt, plus more for sprinkling [Bowl A]
- [ ] 4 grams (.15 ounces, about 1/2 teaspoon) instant yeast [Bowl A]
- [ ] 275 grams (9.5 ounces, about 1 cup plus 3 tablespoons) water [Bowl A]
- [ ] 8 grams (.25 ounces, about 2 teaspoons) extra-virgin olive oil, plus more to coat pans and drizzle [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 1/2 cups pizza sauce, such as our New York-style pizza sauce
- [ ] 12 ounces grated full-fat, dry mozzarella cheese (see note above)
- [ ] Toppings as desired
- [ ] Small handful torn fresh basil leaves (optional)
- [ ] 2 ounces grated parmesan or pecorino Romano cheese (optional)

1. Prepare and cook

1. Combine flour, salt, yeast, water, and oil in a large bowl. Mix with hands or a wooden spoon until no dry flour remains. The bowl should be at least 4 to 6 times to volume of the dough to account for rising.

2. Cover bowl tightly with plastic wrap, making sure that edges are well-sealed, then let rest on the countertop for at least 8 hours and up to 24. Dough should rise dramatically and fill bowl.

3. Sprinkle the top of the dough lightly with flour, then transfer it to a well-floured work surface. Divide dough into two pieces and form each into a ball by holding it with well-floured hands and tucking the dough underneath itself, rotating it until it forms a tight ball.

4. Pour 1 to 2 tablespoons of oil in the bottom of two 10-inch cast iron skillet or round cake pans. (See note above). Place 1 ball of dough in each pan and turn to coat evenly with oil. Using a flat palm, press the dough around the pan, flattening it slightly and spreading oil around the entire bottom and edges of the pan. Cover tightly with plastic wrap and let the dough sit at room temperature for two hours. After the first hour, adjust an oven rack to the middle position and preheat oven to 550°F.

5. After two hours, dough should be mostly filling in the pan up to the edges. Use your fingertips to press it around until it fills in every corner, popping any large bubbles that appear. Lift up one edge of the dough to let any air bubbles underneath escape and repeat, moving around the dough until there are no air bubbles left underneath and the dough is evenly spread around the pan.

6. Top each round of dough with 3/4 cup sauce, spreading the sauce with the back of a spoon into every corner. Spread evenly with mozzarella cheese, letting the cheese go all the way to the edges. Season with salt. Add other toppings as desired. Drizzle with olive oil and scatter a few basil leaves over the top (if desired)

7. Transfer pan to oven and bake until top is golden brown and bubbly and bottom is golden brown and crisp when you lift it with a thin spatula, 12 to 15 minutes. Immediately sprinkle with grated parmesan or pecorino Romano cheese. Using a thin spatula, loosen pizza and peek underneath. If bottom is not as crisp as desired, place pan over a burner and cook on medium heat, moving the pan around to cook evenly until it is crisp, 1 to 3 minutes. Remove the pizzas and transfer to to a cutting board. Cut each one into six slices and serve immediately.

Fried Rice

Side dishes | Instant Pot

Before you start

Equipment: Instant Pot. Start with about 5 cups chilled cooked rice, or cook 1 1/2 cups dry jasmine rice first. Rice: 4 minutes high pressure plus 10 minutes natural-release and cooling time.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Eggs and salt

Bowl B - Garlic and ginger

Bowl C - Soy sauce and sesame oil

- [ ] 1 1/2 cups uncooked jasmine rice (or about 5 cups cooked rice, chilled before frying)
- [ ] 1 1/2 cups water, only if cooking rice from dry
- [ ] 3 Tbsp oil, divided into two 1 1/2 Tbsp portions
- [ ] 4 eggs [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/2 tsp salt [Bowl A]
- [ ] 2 cloves garlic, minced [Bowl B]
- [ ] 2-inch piece ginger, minced or grated [Bowl B]
- [ ] 10 oz frozen mixed vegetables
- [ ] 2 Tbsp low-sodium soy sauce [Bowl C]
- [ ] 1 1/2 tsp sesame oil [Bowl C]
- [ ] 1/3 cup green onions, sliced
- [ ] 1/4 tsp black pepper

1. Prepare rice

1. If starting with dry rice, pressure-cook 1 1/2 cups uncooked jasmine rice with 1 1/2 cups water on high for 4 minutes. Natural-release 10 minutes, then release any remaining pressure.

2. Chill the cooked rice before frying for best texture. If using about 5 cups chilled cooked rice, skip the pressure-cooking stage.

2. Scramble eggs and cook vegetables

1. Using sauté mode, heat 1 1/2 Tbsp oil (half of the 3 Tbsp total). Scramble 4 eggs with 1/2 tsp salt, then remove from the pot.

2. Add the remaining 1 1/2 Tbsp oil, 2 minced garlic cloves, and one minced or grated 2-inch piece ginger. Cook briefly.

3. Add 10 oz frozen mixed vegetables and stir-fry until heated.

3. Fry and finish

1. Add the chilled rice (about 5 cups) in batches. Fry, breaking up clumps.
2. Stir in 2 Tbsp low-sodium soy sauce and 1 1/2 tsp sesame oil.
3. Turn off the heat. Fold in the cooked eggs and 1/3 cup sliced green onions. Season with 1/4 tsp black pepper.

Notes

Chilled rice works much better than freshly cooked hot rice for fried rice.

Prep clarification needed: Cooking oil type is not specified in the saved recipe. Retain your usual choice; no type has been assumed. Ginger may be minced or grated, as written.

3. Pour the sauce into the Instant Pot. Add the chicken, and secure the lid. Select manual (or high pressure) and cook on high pressure for 10 minutes. Use a quick release.

4. Once steam has been completely removed, remove the lid and take out the chicken. Dice or shred using a fork and knife. Return the chicken back to the pot. At this point you can select cancel, and let the sauce cool and thicken. Or serve immediately.

5. Serve with rice or cauliflower rice, or tortillas. Top with tomatoes, avocado, onion, or fresh cilantro.

1. Mash lime juice and simple syrup with mint leaves. Add rum and ice, then top with soda water.

Notes

Source also gives a pitcher (4 servings): 1/4 cup simple syrup, 1/2 cup lime juice, and 1 cup light rum. The single-serving note says 2 1/2 oz rum and also “1/4 cup”; these differ, so 2 1/2 oz is retained with this clarification.

Saved simple syrup ratio: 2 parts water to 1 part sugar.

Mongolian Beef

Main dishes | Stovetop & prep

Bowl A - Garlic and ginger

Bowl B - Sauce liquids and sugar

- [ ] 1 lb flank steak, sliced into bite-size strips

1. Coat beef and make sauce

1. Toss 1 lb flank steak, sliced into bite-size strips, with 1/4 cup cornstarch until coated.

2. Heat 1 Tbsp olive oil and 1 Tbsp sesame oil in a saucepan. Cook 3-4 minced garlic cloves and 1-2 tsp minced fresh ginger about 1 minute.

New York-Style Pizza Dough

Breads | Oven

Before you start

Scaled dough formula with conflicting sugar and dough-ball notes; review those notes before making. Cold ferment overnight to 36 hours.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Flour, sugar, salt, and oil

Bowl B - Warm water and yeast

- [ ] 1500 g bread flour [Bowl A]
- [ ] 975 g water, 85-95°F [Bowl B]
- [ ] 24-45 g sugar (see conflicting note) [Bowl A]
- [ ] 27 g salt [Bowl A]
- [ ] 6 g instant yeast [Bowl B]
- [ ] 45 g olive oil [Bowl A]
- [ ] 30 g diastatic malt (optional)

1. Prepare and cook

1. Mix flour, sugar, salt, and oil in a stand mixer with dough hook. Stir yeast into warm water and wait 5 minutes.

2. Mix on medium while pouring in water; continue about 10 minutes until a smooth, slightly sticky, stretchy ball forms. Hand-knead 2 minutes, cover with the overturned bowl, and rest 20 minutes.

3. Personal yield note calls for 6 dough balls (450 g, or “6 415 g” in parentheses). Divide, fold, and form tight balls; cover in lightly oiled containers and refrigerate overnight or up to 36 hours. The captured original says two balls, which conflicts with the scaled formula.

4. Remove from refrigerator 3 hours before stretching (2 hours in a very warm house); dust lightly with flour.

Notes

Recovered from the ingredient/method image. Saved sugar line says 24-45 g, but explanatory text says 15 g without malt or 8 g with malt, apparently unscaled; confirm sugar amount.

Saved high-heat oven note: preheat 800-900°F, launch, turn oven completely off 2 minutes, turn back on very low, and rotate. It gives no final bake duration.

No-Knead Bread

Breads | Oven

Before you start

Plan about 12 hours ahead, then allow about 1 hour for the shaped loaf to rise. Bake at 450°F in a covered Dutch oven: 30 minutes covered, then 15 minutes uncovered.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Flour, yeast, and salt

- [ ] 400 g flour (about 3 1/4 cups), plus extra for dusting [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/4 tsp yeast [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 heaping tsp salt [Bowl A]
- [ ] 320 ml lukewarm water

1. Prepare and cook

1. Add the dry ingredients to the bowl and stir.

2. Add the 320 ml of lukewarm water

3. Use a fork to combine the ingredients. We want to have pretty much all the dry flour incorporated into the wet dough, but you don't need to stir it past that point.

4. Cover and let it sit for about 12 hours. (Anything from 8 to 15 hours is probably fine.)

5. Wet your hands and scoop out the dough. Fold it a few times and shape it into a ball.

6. Drop it onto some parchment paper and sprinkle some flour on top.

7. Cover it with a cloth and let it rise for an hour or so.

8. Put the pot in the oven and preheat the oven to 450.

9. Open the oven and take off the lid of the pot. Grab the sides of the parchment paper and lift the dough. Lower it into the pot, close the lid, and close the oven.

10. Bake for 30 minutes. Then remove the lid.

11. Bake for another 15 minutes.

12. Remove from the oven and let it cool completely before eating.

Notes

If you like warm bread (who doesn't?), warm it up later, but definitely let it cool first unless you prefer doughy, gummy bread.)

Dip it in olive oil with some salt and pepper and a little balsamic.

Make a bunch of batches at once and fill plastic bags of just the dry ingredients.

Rather than clean the bowl after you scoop out the dough, leave some extra dough in there and leave it in the fridge to use for tomorrow's loaf and get some sour dough flavor.

No-Knead Neapolitan Pizza Dough

Breads | Oven

Before you start

Rise 8-12 hours at room temperature, then cold ferment 2-4 days (3 days preferred). Rest 2-3 hours at room temperature before stretching.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Flour, salt, and yeast

- [ ] 1000g bread flour, preferably Italian-style "OO" [Bowl A]
- [ ] 25g fine sea salt [Bowl A]
- [ ] 10g instant yeast [Bowl A]
- [ ] 650 ml water (650 grams)

1. Prepare and cook

1. Combine flour, salt, and yeast in a large bowl (mine is 4.5 L) and whisk until homogenous. Add water and incorporate into flour using a fork, your hands, or a dough wisk until no dry flour remains on the bottom of the bowl. (This is a “no-knead” recipe. We aren't spending 20 minutes kneading the dough. We just want everything to be pretty homogenous.

2. Cover the bowl tightly with a lid plastic wrap and allow to rise at room temperature for 8 to 12 hours.

3. Turn dough out onto a lightly floured surface and give it several folds. Divide into 6-8 even balls. Place each in a covered container. Place in the refrigerator and allow to cold ferment for 2-4 days. (3 days is supposed to be optimal.)

4. Remove from the refrigerator. Take one of the hunks of dough and give it a few folds. Then stretch it over itself and pinch it closed. Roll it around to close the seam and make a nice ball. Repeat with the others.

5. Dust some flour on top and cover with a towel to rest at room temperature for 2-3 hours before stretching and baking.

6. Freeze the balls if you want to use them later instead of the cold ferment (Step 3). If freezing, put the balls separated on a tray and put them in the freezer for an hour or so. Once frozen you can put them in individual zip lock bags and toss them back in the freezer. When you want to use some, take some out of the freezer and put the refrigerator the night before and proceed to step 4 when ready to use.

Notes

Source formula uses 25 g salt per 1000 g flour, but the accompanying ratio note says 2%; 25 g is preserved and the discrepancy is flagged.

Yield notes list 8 x 210 g or 7 x 240 g dough balls; directions say divide into 6-8 balls. Baking temperature and topping instructions are not included.

2. Cook

1. Scoop about 2-3 Tbsp batter per pancake into the skillet.

2. Flip when the edges are set and the underside is golden. Cook the second side just until done; avoid overcooking.

Notes

Protein powders absorb liquid differently, so adjust the batter rather than relying on one exact amount of liquid.

Avoid overcooking; it makes protein pancakes dry.

Smooth Hummus

Sauces & dips | Stovetop & prep

Before you start

Drain and rinse chickpeas. Crush garlic. Cream tahini with lemon juice before adding other ingredients.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Tahini and lemon juice

Bowl B - Garlic and salt

- [ ] 2 (15 oz) cans chickpeas, drained and rinsed
- [ ] 2/3-3/4 cup tahini [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/2 cup lemon juice [Bowl A]
- [ ] 4 cloves garlic, crushed [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 tsp sea salt [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1/4 cup olive oil
- [ ] 1/4 cup water
- [ ] Cayenne (amount unspecified)
- [ ] Cumin (amount unspecified)
- [ ] Paprika for topping

1. Prepare and cook

1. Drain and rinse the chickpeas and set aside. You can spend the time taking the little skins off each chickpea but it's pretty time consuming and not so much creamier that I think it's worth it. This recipe gets pretty creamy even without that step.

2. Combine the tahini and the lemon juice and blend until smooth and frothy. This is the key to getting it creamy, by the way. You have to combine these 2 ingredients first, essentially cream the tahini, or it just won't blend perfectly with the chickpeas.

3. Add the garlic and salt and blend again.

4. Now add in the chickpeas about 1/3 of the can at a time and blend until smooth. Try to get as few skins as possible, this will also help with the texture. Scrap down the sides of the blender and push the chickpeas down to the bottom as needed. Once you've got all the chickpeas blended in, add the olive oil and turn on the blender and just leave it for a few minutes. I like to add in a little water too, to get the consistency just how I like it.

Notes

Optional additions in the file: a large handful of parsley, 2 scallions, and 1/2 tsp each coriander, ginger, dry mustard, turmeric, and paprika. Their addition timing is not specified.

Cayenne and cumin amounts are unspecified. Sprinkle paprika on top. The original file also contains orange hummus and tahini sauce.

Sous Vide Bacon and Gruyère Egg Bites

Breakfast | Sous vide

Before you start

Equipment: six 4 oz/125 ml canning jars with two-part lids and sous vide cooker. Cook at 172°F/77.8°C for 1 hour.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Eggs, Gruyère, cream cheese, and salt

- [ ] 6 eggs [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/2 cup Gruyère, grated [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/4 cup cream cheese [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/4 tsp salt [Bowl A]
- [ ] 3 slices cooked bacon, halved

1. Prepare and cook

1. Set your Anova Precision Cooker for 172ºF/77.8ºC

2. In a blender or food processor, combine eggs, cheeses (or other optional dairy like cream), and salt until smooth

3. Place your jars on a work surface and push a half-slice of bacon into the bottom of each one

4. Divide the egg & cheese mixture evenly among the jars

5. Attach two-part lids and close to fingertip tightness. This means using only your fingertips to screw on the ring; if they are too tight, the air pressure within will not be able to release and the jars will shatter on the bath

6. Once closed, submerge the jars in the water bath and set your timer for 1 hour

2. Finishing Steps

1. Remove from the bath and enjoy straight from the jar if desired! You can also slide a butter knife around the edge, pushing gently inwards as you do so to loosen the base. Invert jar onto heat-safe surface and either sear with a torch or place under broiler for a few minutes for color.

2. Enjoy!

Notes

Uses the complete six-jar recipe in the saved file. Several personal 12-/14-/18-egg variations at 170°F remain in the original document; their quantities are not blended into this version.

For dry-style ribs, skip the sauce and coat the cooked ribs with the reserved dry rub before finishing.

Sous Vide Tuna

Main dishes | Sous vide

Before you start

Equipment: sous-vide bath, food-safe bag, and heavy skillet. Plan ahead: refrigerate seasoned tuna 30 minutes to overnight. For the listed 1 1/2-2-inch steaks, the saved cooking chart gives 45-60 minutes; choose temperature using the guide below.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Bag oil and optional aromatics

- [ ] 2 tuna steaks, 10-12 oz each and about 1 1/2-2 inches thick
- [ ] Kosher salt and black pepper
- [ ] 2 Tbsp extra-virgin olive oil [Bowl A]
- [ ] Thyme, dill, parsley, shallot, or citrus zest, optional [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1/2 cup sesame seeds, optional for searing
- [ ] 2 Tbsp vegetable oil for searing

Temperature guide

105°F: nearly raw, slightly firmed; good chilled

110°F: very moist and just firmed; good for searing

115°F: meaty and moist; good for searing

120°F: firm and relatively dry

130°F: canned-tuna-like texture

1. Season and bag

1. Season 2 tuna steaks, 10-12 oz each and about 1 1/2-2 inches thick, generously with kosher salt and black pepper.

2. Bag in a single layer with 2 Tbsp extra-virgin olive oil and optional thyme, dill, parsley, shallot, or citrus zest. Refrigerate at least 30 minutes and up to overnight.

2. Cook

1. Preheat the bath to your chosen temperature from the temperature guide. Use water displacement rather than a strong vacuum if possible, to avoid deforming the tuna.

2. Cook 45-60 minutes for 1-2-inch-thick steaks. If using steaks 1 inch thick or less, cook 30-45 minutes instead.

3. Sear

1. Remove tuna and blot very dry. For a seared finish, season with black pepper or coat with optional 1/2 cup sesame seeds.

2. Heat 2 Tbsp vegetable oil in a heavy skillet until lightly smoking. Sear 30-45 seconds per side, then briefly sear the edges.

Notes

Timing clarification: your personal note says 110°F for 40 minutes. The saved source chart gives 45-60 minutes for the listed thicker steaks; the 40-minute note is preserved below as your preference.

Personal note from Recipe Index: cook at 110°F for 40 minutes, sear; maybe 105°F for rarer tuna.

The source specifically recommends 110°F for very moist seared tuna and 105°F for a nearly raw, sashimi-like texture.

Thai Basil Chicken

Main dishes | Stovetop & prep

Before you start

Mince garlic, slice onion thinly, cube chicken, tear basil, and chop tomatoes.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Garlic and pepper flakes

Bowl B - Oyster sauce, hoisin, soy sauce, and sugar

- [ ] 1 Tbsp canola oil
- [ ] 3 garlic cloves, finely minced [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 T red pepper flakes [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 onion, cut in half and sliced into thin strips
- [ ] 2 boneless, skinless chicken breasts (about 1 1/2 pound), cut into bite-size pieces
- [ ] 1/4 C oyster sauce [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1/4 C hoisin sauce [Bowl B]
- [ ] 2 Tbsp soy sauce [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 Tbsp sugar [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 bunch fresh basil (about 1/2 cup), torn into pieces
- [ ] 2 large tomatoes, chopped

1. Prepare and cook

1. Heat the oil in a large frying pan over medium heat. Add the garlic and red pepper flakes. Stir consistently for about 30-60 seconds, until fragrant (don't let the garlic burn!). Add the sliced onions. Cook until the onions are translucent, stirring every now and then, about five minutes. Add the chicken and cook for 3-5 minutes, until browned and cooked through.

2. Mix together the oyster sauce, hoisin sauce, soy sauce, and sugar and add into chicken. Stir until everything is well coated. Turn the heat down to medium low and sprinkle the tomatoes over the top of the mixture. Tear the basil by hand and sprinkle it over the tomatoes. While still on the stove over medium heat, let the tomatoes and basil sit, without stirring, for about 5 minutes to allow the basil to wilt slightly and the tomatoes to warm. Stir the mixture until everything is well combined and heated through.

3. Serve immediately over rice.

Notes

A separate from-memory fish-sauce variation remains in the original file. The complete oyster/hoisin sauce version is used here.

Tomato Pie

Main dishes | Oven

Before you start

Makes one 13x18-inch pizza, serving 4-6. Bake at 450°F for about 20 minutes (source notes “less!”), then cool at least 15 minutes.

Ingredients

Keep these ingredients separate; follow the order in the directions.

For the Dough

- [ ] 500 grams (17.5 ounces, about 3 1/2 cups) all-purpose flour
- [ ] 10 grams (.35 ounces, about 2 teaspoons) salt
- [ ] 6 grams (.175 ounces, about 1.5 teaspoon) rapid-rise yeast
- [ ] 30 grams (1 ounce, about 2 1/4 tablespoons) extra-virgin olive oil, plus 1/4 c for greasing pan
- [ ] 325 grams (11.5 ounces, about 1 cup plus 6 tablespoons) water

For the Sauce

- [ ] 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- [ ] 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- [ ] 4 cloves garlic, grated on a microplane grater
- [ ] 1 tablespoon dried oregano
- [ ] 1/4 teaspoon red pepper flakes
- [ ] 1 (28-ounce) can whole peeled tomatoes, roughly pureed in a food processor or blender
- [ ] 1 tablespoon sugar
- [ ] 2 shallot or small onion
- [ ] Kosher salt
- [ ] 1/2 ounce finely grated Pecorino Romano cheese

1. Prepare and cook

1. Combine flour, salt, yeast, 0.35 ounce olive oil, and water in the bowl of a food processor fitted with the blade or dough blade attachment. Process until a dough that rides around the blade forms, then continue processing for 30 seconds.

2. Pour remaining 1/4 cup olive oil into a 13- by 18-inch rimmed baking sheet and spread over entire inner surface with your hands. Transfer dough to baking sheet and turn in oil until thoroughly coated. Spread gently with your hands. (It will not stretch to fill the pan; this is fine.) Cover baking sheet with plastic wrap and allow to rise at room temperature until dough has slackened and started to spread out toward the edges of the pan, 2 to 3 hours. Carefully remove plastic wrap from pizza dough. Using oiled hands, and working as gently as possible to maintain air bubbles, push and stretch dough into the corners of the pan by pressing out from the center, lifting each corner, and stretching it beyond the edge of the pan. It should pull back until pan is just filled with dough. Set aside for 20 to 30 minutes while you make the sauce.

3. For the Sauce: Heat olive oil and butter in a medium saucepan over medium-high heat until butter melts. Add garlic, oregano, and pepper flakes. Cook, stirring constantly, until softened and fragrant, about 1 minute. Add tomatoes, sugar, and whole shallot. Bring to a bare simmer and cook, stirring occasionally, until rich and thick, about 45 minutes. Season to taste with salt. Allow to cool in fridge while dough rises.

4. Two hours before baking, remove dough from fridge. Generously grease the inside of a 13- by 18-inch rimmed baking sheet with olive oil (about 3 tablespoons). Turn dough out onto lightly floured surface. Form into flat ball and transfer to baking sheet. Using your hands, coat the ball on all sides with olive oil. Loosely cover the baking sheet with plastic and let dough rise in a warm spot for 1 hour. The dough should spread out . (Try rolling out with rolling pin instead)

5. Carefully stretch and push the dough into the corners and edges of the pan. Cover loosely, and let rise for 1 hour longer. Meanwhile, adjust oven rack to upper middle position and preheat oven to 450°F. When dough has risen, gently dock center with finger tips and use your hands to create a risen ridge about 1-inch wide around the edge.

6. Spread sauce generously over dough (use all of it!), leaving the raised 1-inch edge un-sauced. Bake until edges are light golden brown and crisp, about 20 minutes total (less!), rotating pan once half way through baking. Remove from oven and allow to cool at room temperature for at least 15 minutes. Sprinkle with Romano cheese, cut into slices, and serve.

Notes

Source discrepancy: dough ingredient list says 30 g olive oil, but its first direction says 0.35 oz (about 10 g). It also moves dough from a fridge without specifying an earlier refrigeration step. These details need clarification; no overnight schedule has been invented.

Tortilla Pizza Supreme

Main dishes | Oven

Before you start

Use a cast-iron skillet and a tortilla that fits inside it. Broil 6-8 inches below the element on High for 2-4 minutes, until sausage is cooked and cheese browns.

Ingredients

Keep these ingredients separate; follow the order in the directions.

- [ ] 1/2 teaspoon extra-virgin olive oil
- [ ] 1 large flour tortilla that just fits inside your cast iron skillet
- [ ] 1/4 cup store-bought or homemade pizza sauce
- [ ] 1 1/2 ounces shredded whole milk low moisture mozzarella cheese
- [ ] 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese, divided
- [ ] Kosher salt
- [ ] 1/4 cup diced yellow onion
- [ ] 1/4 cup diced green bell pepper
- [ ] 2 ounces thinly sliced pepperoni
- [ ] 3 ounces raw Italian sausage, formed into 1/2-inch balls
- [ ] 2 basil leaves, roughly torn

1. Prepare and cook

1. Adjust oven rack to 6 to 8 inches below broiler element and preheat broiler to high. Heat oil in a large cast iron skillet over high heat until shimmering. Reduce heat to medium and wipe out excess oil with a paper towel.

2. Place tortilla in skillet with the rougher textured-side facing down. Spread sauce evenly over tortilla all the way to the edges. Spread mozzarella and half of Parmesan evenly over tortilla all the way to the edges. Season lightly with salt. Sprinkle with onion and bell pepper. Lay pepperoni and sausage chunks over pizza. Scatter with basil.

3. Place skillet under broiler and broil until sausage is cooked through and cheese is melted and starting to brown in spots, 2 to 4 minutes. Remove from oven and sprinkle with remaining Parmesan. Using a small metal spatula, gently pry edges of pizza, releasing the cheese from the skillet. Peek under bottom. If more crispness is desired, place skillet over medium heat and cook, swirling pizza and peeking occasionally, until desired crispness is achieved. Slide pizza out onto a cutting board. Cut and serve immediately.

Allow about 45-55 minutes total, including coming to pressure. Add beans and corn after pressure cooking; add dairy off the heat.

Ingredients

Matching letters and colors = one prep bowl. Charcoal = keep separate.

Bowl A - Onion and jalapeno

Bowl B - Garlic, oregano, and cumin

Bowl C - Broth and green chiles

Bowl D - White beans and corn; add after pressure cooking

- [ ] 1 tbsp neutral oil
- [ ] 1 medium yellow onion, chopped [Bowl A]
- [ ] 1 jalapeno, seeded and finely chopped [Bowl A]
- [ ] 2 cloves garlic, finely chopped [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 tsp dried oregano [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 tsp ground cumin [Bowl B]
- [ ] 1 3/4 lb raw boneless, skinless chicken breasts, thawed; cut very large breasts in half crosswise
- [ ] 5 cups low-sodium chicken broth [Bowl C]
- [ ] 2 (4.5-oz) cans green chiles [Bowl C]
- [ ] Kosher salt, to taste
- [ ] Freshly ground black pepper, to taste
- [ ] 2 (15-oz) cans white beans, drained and rinsed [Bowl D]
- [ ] 1 1/2 cups frozen corn [Bowl D]
- [ ] 8 oz cream cheese, softened and cut into small cubes
- [ ] 1/2 cup sour cream
- [ ] 8 oz shredded Monterey Jack, for serving
- [ ] 1 avocado, thinly sliced, for serving
- [ ] 1/4 cup chopped fresh cilantro, for serving
- [ ] 1/4 cup crushed tortilla chips, for serving

1. Saute the aromatics

1. Select Saute and heat the oil. Add the onion and jalapeno; cook 5-7 minutes, stirring, until softened.

2. Add the garlic, oregano, and cumin. Cook 30-60 seconds, stirring, until fragrant.

2. Pressure-cook the chicken

1. Pour in the broth and green chiles. Scrape the bottom thoroughly until no browned bits remain, then press Cancel.

2. Nestle the chicken into the broth. Season with salt and black pepper. Leave the beans, corn, cream cheese, sour cream, and Monterey Jack out for now.

3. Seal the lid and set High Pressure for 10 minutes. When cooking ends, naturally release for 10 minutes, then carefully release the remaining pressure.

4. Check that the thickest part of the chicken reaches 165F. If needed, use Saute to simmer it in the broth until it does. Transfer the chicken to a bowl and shred with two forks.

3. Add the beans and finish

1. Select Saute on Low. Stir in the beans and corn. Simmer gently about 5 minutes, until hot. Mash roughly one-quarter of the beans against the side of the pot to thicken the broth. For a thicker chili, simmer uncovered a few more minutes before adding dairy.

2. Press Cancel. Put the softened cream cheese in a bowl. Gradually whisk in about 1 cup hot broth ladled from the pot until smooth, then stir the mixture back into the chili.

3. Return the shredded chicken to the pot and stir in the sour cream. Warm gently if necessary without boiling. Taste and adjust salt and black pepper.

4. Ladle into bowls. Divide the Monterey Jack, avocado, cilantro, and tortilla chips among the servings as desired.
