1. Prepare and cook

1. In 6-quart pressure cooker, heat oil over medium heat 3 to 5 minutes. Add DOÑA MARÍA® Mole and cook 3 minutes or until softened. Pour in chicken broth, scrape bottom of pressure cooker incorporating all the paste and stir 5 minutes or until mixture is completely smooth.

2. Season chicken to taste with salt and pepper and add to pressure cooker. Scrape and stir mixture.

3. Lock pressure cooker and cook on high 5 minutes. Allow additional 15 minutes for pressure to reduce.

4. Remove chicken and shred using forks.

5. Add shredded chicken back into the mixture and stir

6. Serve over flour tortillas, garnish with onions and cilantro.

7. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Warm corn tortillas on a hot skillet for a few seconds in each side, or fry them lightly in oil.

8. Pour 1/4 cup of mole sauce into the bottom of a 9x13” pan. Fill each corn tortilla with a handful of chicken and small sprinkle of cheese, then roll tightly, and place seam side down in the pan.

9. Pour remaining mole sauce over the top. Bake for 20-25 minutes or until hot and bubbly.

10. Remove from oven and top a drizzle of sour cream, a sprinkle of cotija cheese, cilantro and chopped avocado.

Notes

The document combines a pressure-cooker mole filling with baked corn-tortilla enchiladas. It lists flour tortillas for the pressure-cooker serving option, then uses corn tortillas in the baking instructions.

Amounts for added tomatoes, enchilada cheese, sour cream, cotija, and avocado are unspecified. Added peanut butter (1 tbsp) and hot chocolate powder (1 tbsp) have no specified timing.

A separate stovetop mole-sauce variant remains in the original file.
